 The fire alarm last evening was caused by a blaze in Mrs. Pendleton's house, on Twelfth street. A mantle piece was burned, and that was the extent of the damage. The confusion of the alarm was due to the pulling of two boxes at once.

Fire was put under the new battery at the Aetna-Standard on Saturday for the first time. Two or three mills will be operated by this battery will go on this week, probably to-morrow. Two of these mills have been off since summer and two for two months.

Mrs. McConnell and daughter, of Bridgeport, had an exceedingly unpleasant experience at Lorain last week according to a Cleveland paper. They arrived on Thursday and found the citizens became excited. A meeting of the board of health was called and the Bridgeport people were requested to leave town, which they did.

Novel Entertainment Promised.
 The attention of readers is called to the John Knox entertainments which are to be given on behalf of the Home for Aged and Friendless Women, at the Grand Opera House, February 24 and 25, with a matinee on Wednesday afternoon.

These entertainments will be of like character to the "Story of the Reformation," which was given here a year ago under the auspices of the Lutheran church, and which was such a great success. Mrs. Moore, who was the lecturer before, will again have charge, and many of the best known ladies and gentlemen of Wheeling will take prominent parts.

Five Wards Now.
 By a unanimous vote of the city council of Martin's Ferry on Saturday night an ordinance was passed dividing the city into five wards. This will necessitate the election of seven councilmen in April, two from the First, one from the Second, one from the Third, one from the Fourth and two from the Fifth. The councilmen holding over are Stewart, James and Kerr. The change does not effect the board of education or the police force.

Central Glass Works' Directors.
 The first stockholders' meeting of the lately organized Central glass works was held Saturday, and the following gentlemen were elected members of the board of directors:
 N. E. Scott, Louis F. Stifel, Peter Cassell, Joseph Speidel, W. C. Goerling, James Stedman, and Dr. R. W. Hargrett. The board did not organize, but it is expected that they will do so to-day. The works are all ready to start up. A small pay was disbursed to the few men employed on Saturday.

In Olden Times.
 People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well informed people will not buy any other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

TRADES ASSEMBLY.

An Interesting and Exciting Meeting Held Yesterday.

A NUMBER OF NEW DELEGATES

Admitted and Obligated—Delegates Appointed on the City Charter Committee.
President Tighe Appoints His Standing Committees—The Butchers' Difficulty.
The Horseshoers' Organization—Endorsement of W. T. Lewis for Ohio Labor Commissioner.

Yesterday afternoon a regular meeting of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, the local representative labor organization, was held. The attendance of delegates was larger than usual. The new officers, just elected, occupied their positions for the first time.

The following new delegates were admitted and obligated:
 Painters' Local Union, No. 91—William Hagan.
 United Mine Workers, No. 969—Louis D. Frebolt.
 Stonemasons' Union No. 2—James Collins.
 Brotherhood of Operative Pottery, No. 28—Harry Rignor.
 Brewery Workers, No. 53—L. Strobel.
 John Welch, George Dikel.
 Carpenters and Joiners, No. 14—T. V. Salisbury, L. T. Shipman, Joseph Faust.
 Amalgamated Association, No. 55—W. S. Morris, David Llewellyn.

President Tighe made the following appointments of standing committees for the ensuing year:
 Legislative committee of West Virginia—Ned Sims, chairman; Louis Paradise, H. A. Foster, Roger W. Welch, Joseph Purcell.
 Legislative committee of Ohio—T. V. Salisbury, W. H. Riley, William Doepke, David Llewellyn, Ed. Franke.
 Arbitration committee—A. L. Bauer, chairman; Fred Wilkins.

Organization committee—Henry Templeton, Frank Loyola, Thomas Johnson, John Donahue, C. W. Doane. Ways and means—W. H. Riley, Richard Robertson, Herman Knoke, Jere Mead, Walter Allison.

An appeal for help from the Council of Trades and Labor Unions, of Detroit, on behalf of striking cigarmakers, was read. A delegate moved to receive and file, but the motion of another to lay on the table prevailed. This Detroit affair involves a fight between Federation and Knights of Labor—the reason the assembly took the action mentioned.

The arbitration committee reported on the butchers' difficulty. Their recommendation is that the local unions, under the assembly, in the future act in conjunction with the arbitration committee.

The application of the horseshoers' local organization for membership in the assembly caused lively discussion. There was an objection to this organization being admitted because many of them are employers. It was stated that the horseshoers were willing to admit apprentices on an equal footing. A motion to defer consideration of the application until the next meeting of the assembly, was amended by instructing the organization committee to make inquiries in the meantime. The motion as amended was adopted.

A communication from City Clerk Dannenberg requesting the appointment of two members of the trades assembly to a special committee that is to take up the matter of a new city charter was received. Delegate Riley moved that the request be complied with and that M. F. Tighe (Dem.) and Richard Robertson (Rep.) be the assembly's representation on the committee. Other delegates favored an election by the assembly. Mr. Grogan moved that the assembly could select its representatives as would be found desirable. Mr. Robertson spoke of his course of action in case he should be chosen—he would approve centralization of power in city boards. Finally a motion to go into an election of two trades assembly representatives on the charter committee, was passed.

The following nominations were made: Messrs. Tighe, Riley, Robertson, Grogan, Messrs. Grogan and Riley withdrew and Messrs. Robertson and Tighe were chosen by acclamation.

A communication asking the support of the assembly in the candidacy of W. T. Lewis, for state labor commissioner of Ohio, was received. There was a storm of opposition to the assembly taking a hand in politics. Others claimed that it was nothing more than proper for the assembly to do all possible to advance a labor advocate like William T. Lewis. A motion to endorse Mr. Lewis' candidacy was made and passed unanimously.

The president appointed Arthur Ingram as doorkeeper.
 Mr. Riley reported the trustees had appointed Edward Gillies as collector. The scale of salaries was changed, so that $98 is saved yearly. Mrs. Driscoll had been appointed janitress.

Mr. W. H. Riley tendered his resignation as a trustee. Mr. Ned Sims was chosen as his successor unanimously.

A delegate introduced the following resolution:
 Resolved, That it is the sense of this assembly that Governor MacCorkle would do a wise and just act by pardoning Jack Probascio from our state prison on the ground he is innocent of the charge upon which he was convicted, and the victim of a base plot upon the part of designing enemies.

It was stated that the bricklayers' union, to which Probascio belongs, has already employed two attorneys to assist in securing the release of Probascio. A delegate said an attorney had been employed two years ago, who had accepted a fee of $50, but had done nothing. A physician offers to prove that Probascio is not guilty of the crime alleged—criminal assault upon a girl.

Finally the chair ruled the resolution out of order, as the paper had not the seal of the local union attached. An appeal from the decision was taken and carried. Then a motion was made for the adoption of the resolution, followed by a motion to table, the latter being carried.

NOT a few who read what Mr. Robert Rowle, of Hollands, Va., has to say below, will remember their own experience under like circumstances: "Last winter I had a gripe which left me in a low state of health. I tried numerous remedies, none of which did me any good, until I was induced to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first bottle of it so far relieved me that I was enabled to attend to my work, and the second bottle effected a cure." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle.

THE HUB CLOTHIERS AND FURNISHERS.

A FRUITFUL SEARCH

We have been through our Boys' Clothing Department from stem to stern, hunting out the broken lots in Boys' Overcoats, Boys' Reefers and Boys' Odd Trousers. There are hundreds of Suits, hundreds of Overcoats and scores of Reefers. This morning we give the prices a push that will put them where you will be eager to buy them. These odds and ends are the penalty of the immense Boys' Clothing trade we do. It cannot be helped, so we go it blind, and the public comes in for the benefit. Do not forget that they are THE HUB Suits and Overcoats and we stand behind them just the same.
